

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1895.

NO. 25

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

The excessive wet weather has interfered considerably with the brick making business.

It is reported by his neighbors that Quince Jones has quit cultivating his fine farm and has gone to "sang" digging. His friends are confident that he is training to make the race for the Legislature, believing that the prestige he will gain as a "sang" digger will make him an easy winner.

There will be a decoration day at Mt. Olive meeting house near Fishing Creek on the 30th. The Middleburg band will be present and furnish music for the occasion. Col. Silas Adams and other distinguished speakers will be there and a large crowd is expected. A number of old soldiers of the 1st Kentucky Cavalry, 19th Kentucky Infantry and other regiments will be on hand.

Mrs. Permeja Carson, wife of Charlie Carson, living near the mouth of Carpenter's Creek, died on the night of the 16th. She had not lived long in that section, but was beloved and respected by all who knew her. She leaves a husband and two children to mourn her loss. Her health was delicate and hearing of the death of her mother is supposed to have had a serious effect on her physical condition.

The political cyclone struck the democratic party in this county last year as well as some other places, and this year republican candidates for the nomination to represent Casey and Russell in the Legislature have come out thicker than fiddlers in hedges. It was supposed for some time that no democrat would dare to make the race. But it seems that the republican who gets the nomination will not have a clear field before him.

BRODHEAD, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

The L. & N. is putting in a new water tank here.

They tell us that the entertainment at the Christian church last Saturday night was quite a success.

We want to ask the people of the community not to forget the strawberry and ice cream supper at the Wilmot Hotel next Saturday night.

Miss Susie Hilton, of Rowland, is visiting the Woodard and Cherry families this week. Miss Iva Painter is living in town again. Mr. Joseph Carson, of North Carolina, is visiting our place once more and one of our young ladies was the cause of his visit. Mr. Joseph McClary, of Stanford, stopped off with us this week. Bro. Pike filled his appointment at Gilead church last Saturday and Sunday. Our friend and brother Perander Hatt came down last Tuesday looking as well as usual.

You had an account of the attempted murder of his wife by W. G. Capps and his effort at suicide. The woman is Capps' second wife and had been married something over a year. They had been getting along very badly and had separated two or three times, but had made up their trouble. She sued him for divorce and he tried to induce her to withdraw it, without avail. She said she had seen enough trouble already and that if it was not for her little children that she would rather be dead than alive. "Well," said he, "I will kill you then," and began his bloody work. Capps seems to be crazy, but such a deed would almost make the devil insane.

The 14th anniversary of the order of the Maccabees will be celebrated throughout the United States on June 11. The order now has a membership of more than 190,000, and has paid out nearly $4,500,000 in death and disability benefits.

T. M. Crutcher, the young merchant of Ghent, who was reported missing, has turned up in Chicago. He wrote his wife that he was there and almost destitute and added that he did not know how he got there.

The free coinage of silver at any ratio, except the market ratio, means the Mexicanization of our currency. The Mexican dollar, containing more silver than ours, is worth less than 50 cents in the world's market.

At Summittville, near Anderson, Ind., one of the best-known men in the vicinity was found dead in his buggy. He had been murdered by robbers, who probably mistook him for another man.

"Listen to the Mocking Bird" was written 40 years ago last week. The composer, Septimus Winner, is still receiving royalties from it, as the copyright does not expire until 1897.

Mrs. Sarah Stephan, an aged widow, who keeps a small candy shop in Kingston, N. Y., is believed to be the rightful heir to an estate of $28,000,000 left by her brother in Australia.

The report of the assessor just completed shows the population of Georgetown to be 4,469, an increase of 160 over 1894.

John F. Cook, Jr., the only negro resident of Bonnerport, Idaho, has just been elected mayor of the town.

The gold reserve has been increased to $98,122,766. The available cash balance is $182,621,992.

The invention of the typewriter has given employment to half a million of women.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

There will be another match game of base ball here on Tuesday afternoon, June 4th.

Mr. Morgan Hudson sold to Mr. Hackley, of Lincoln, a 11-months old muley calf for $50.

Prof. C. H. Poage, who has taught this scholastic year, mathematics and the languages at Garrard College, has taken a like position at Kirksville.

The court-house has received some recent adornments in the way of new lightning rods and coping has been added to the eves of the house.

On Decoration Day, May 30th, there will not only be a bicycle race, but a foot race, too. We learn the Stanford band has been engaged for the day. There will also be a supper given by the K. P.'s that night.

There was an educational meeting at the court-house Monday evening in the interest of the colored graded school of this place, in which Col. W. O. Bradley, W. J. Williams and Superintendent J. Hunt McMurtry made addresses.

Mrs. Lizzie Doty Adams suffered quite a painful accident Monday at the home of her brother, Mr. Jesse Doty, a few miles from Lancaster. In some manner she fell and broke one of her wrists, from which she suffers much pain.

Mrs. A. R. Bourne, a former teacher of Garrard College, under Prof. J. S. Skinner, has accepted the chair of languages in Kentucky University. This is an honor not often conferred upon many ladies, however much ability they may possess.

Lancaster is rejoicing over the fact of having a new passenger train on the K. C. The two trains meet here at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The first two or three afternoons such crowds gathered at the depot as to impress an observer that a "train" had never passed this way before.

The many friends of Miss Allie Walker, of Paint Lick vicinity, regret to hear of the accident that befell her Sunday, while driving with her brother. Their buggy ran upon an embankment, throwing Miss Walker out and bruising her quite severely. At first it was thought she was seriously hurt, but all will be glad to know it is only a painful and severe bruise.

Married on Wednesday evening by Rev. F. M. Hill, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cornutt, a few miles from Lancaster on the Fall Lick pike, their daughter, Miss Lucy E. Cornutt, and Mr. Alvin Estes, of this place. A reception was given the newly wedded pair at the home of the groom's parents on Lexington street.

Prof. Henry Elliott was visiting in Harrodsburg last week. Mrs. George H. Bruce is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Brown. Mrs. Mattie P. Friebis and Miss Ellen G. Owlesley are visiting relatives in Danville. Samuel Lusk, of Hogsett Academy, is a visitor of his aunt, Mrs. Emma Kaufman. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Brown, after a stay of several weeks in Lancaster, left Monday to visit Mrs. Brown's parents in Owensboro. Mr. Wm. Herndon is at Martinsville, Ind., for the benefit of his health. W. C. Price, of Danville, was the guest Tuesday of his mother, Mrs. Susan Price. Mrs. James Fish and daughter, Miss Henry, of Crab Orchard, and Mrs. Black, of Knoxville, Tenn., were guests the first of the week of Mrs. W. A. Arnold. Mrs. E. L. Harris and son, George, have returned from a visit to W. H. Harris and wife, at Carlisle. Mrs. Emma Kaufman was in Danville, Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Price and son, Joe, are in Madison visiting relatives and friends.

On Tuesday night, June 4, the Kentucky Declamatory League, which met last year in Cynthiana, will meet at the court-house in Lancaster under the auspices of Garrard College. Two handsome gold medals will be awarded the winners of first and second prizes. There have been seven entries, as follows: Eugene Pope.....Hogsett Academy "How He Saved St. Michaels." John Allen.....Cynthiana Graded School "Bernardo Dellaripes."

Thos. H. Shanks.....Garrard College "The Sorrows Robab."

J. Bell Egleton, Danville Graded School "Catinne's Defiance."

John H. Norman, Harrodsburg Academy "By Their Fruits Ye Shall Know Them."

A. Duncan Davis.....Nicholasville Graded School.

"How He Saved St. Michaels."

Jesse Holman.....Harrodsburg Graded School.

"My Country, My Mother, My God."

Dr. Sample, a Presbyterian divine of Ft. Townsend, Washington, who preached Sunday morning and evening, seeking a call to the church here, has returned home. It seems his name was curiously and amusingly tangled in the various announcements made in regard to him. Elder George Gowen stated at the Christian church that "Dr. Simple" would preach at the union services that evening. As it was Mr. Gowen's turn to deliver the union sermon and as many of his congregation had never even heard of the visiting divine, it was amusingly concluded that Elder Gowen was indulging in a little jest with his members and had playfully dubbed himself "Dr. Simple." That evening Mr. Gowen, having learned that the name was not "Simple," but was spelled with an "a" in its first syllable, introduced him as "Dr. Sample," considering him appropriately named for the time being, at least, as he was here in the capacity of a "sample" to the Presbyterians. But the name being spelled "Sample," is pronounced Sample, we have since learned.

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

There will be another match game of base ball here on Tuesday afternoon, June 4th.

Mr. Morgan Hudson sold to Mr. Hackley, of Lincoln, a 11-months old muley calf for $50.

Prof. C. H. Poage, who has taught this scholastic year, mathematics and the languages at Garrard College, has taken a like position at Kirksville.

The court-house has received some recent adornments in the way of new lightning rods and coping has been added to the eves of the house.

On Decoration Day, May 30th, there will not only be a bicycle race, but a foot race, too. We learn the Stanford band has been engaged for the day. There will also be a supper given by the K. P.'s that night.

There was an educational meeting at the court-house Monday evening in the interest of the colored graded school of this place, in which Col. W. O. Bradley, W. J. Williams and Superintendent J. Hunt McMurtry made addresses.

Mrs. W. J. Johnson and little daughter, of Georgetown, are here visiting Mrs. J. D. Adkins.

Judge J. R. Sampson came down from Middleboro Wednesday morning to spend a few days.

Miss Lula Cox entertained a number of her young friends at the home of her uncle, Prof. Milford White, last Friday evening.

The Colonels, of Richmond, sang at the Baptist church to a very good audience. The singing was very fine and much enjoyed by those present.

Miss Rose Caudill, of Barbourville, is spending the week with Miss Ruby Gaffill. Miss Florence Miller, of Barbourville, is visiting Mrs. J. M. Ellison.

Last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Richard Faulkner entertained at their home on the Academy hill in honor of Miss Ellie Parrott, of Barbourville, who is visiting them.

Sunday afternoon while some young men were sculling with each other Harve Evans became angry and cut Thomas Wellsmith with a knife across the leg. The wound is not serious. It is said Evans was drinking considerably.

Mrs. Edward Sprout, of Junction City, is visiting Mrs. Sprout's parents Dr. W. B. Finley and his sister, Miss Anna, are in Louisville this week. Mrs. J. Q. McCracken, of Mound Landing, Ill., will spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. M. M. Tutt, in South Williamsburg.

Circuit court is not reaching anything but criminal business. J. W. Partin was given one year for kukluxing; Thomas Logan two years for murder; Nelson Bryant six years for detaining a female. Nelson met Mrs. Gregory, who formerly lived near Hustonville, and offered to show her to the hotel at Corbin, but took her another way and robbed her and made indecent proposals. Wm. Booker plead guilty of murder and was given a life sentence for killing Ambrone Cook last Fall.

The Williamsburg Institute held its regular commencement exercises this week. Rev. J. N. Prestridge preached the Baccalaureate sermon Sunday. Tuesday evening the Smithsonian Society gave an open session. Wednesday evening Dr. Kerfoot, of Louisville, delivered the annual address. Thursday morning the graduating exercises were held in the Baptist church and on Thursday evening the president's reception was held at Johnson Hall.

DANVILLE.—J. L. Bruce qualified as administrator of James R. Marrs. Among his assets is a life insurance policy of $2,500 in the New York Mutual. W. J. Salter, coal dealer, has assigned with liabilities of $4,500. Ten shares Boyle National stock sold at $180. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harding entertained fully 150 of their friends Friday evening in honor of their nieces, Miss Mary Margaret Hardin and Miss Florence Hill, of Henry County. J. S. & Homer Baughman sold to M. J. Farris 75 acres of land, part of the Hutchings tract, adjoining J. Harlan and Strode Yeager at $67.—Advocate.

MR. WALTON.—Please say to the very kind and loving friends that my heart goes out in love and thankfulness for their great kindness and sympathy to us in our great sorrow, especially to Judge Davison for his kind offer to us. I can not express my appreciation of his kindness. Mrs. Anna McClary.

The Queen & Crescent Route will sell tickets to Latonia and return at one and one-third fare from all stations in Kentucky. The race will be held this year from May 23d to June 26th. Ask agents for particulars. W. C. Rinerson, G. P. A., Cincinnati, O.

A Quarter Century Test.

For a quarter of a century Dr. King's New Discovery has been tested and the millions who have received benefit from its use testify to its wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. A remedy that has stood the test so long and that gives such universal satisfaction is an investment. Each bottle is positively guaranteed to give relief or the money will be refunded. It is admitted to be the most reliable for Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large size 50c and $1.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irvington, Ill., writes that he had a severe attack of Kidney Complaint for many years, with severe pains in his back and also the bladder was affected. He tried many so called Kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found a decided improvement. His trouble is especially cured of all Kidney and Liver Troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c, for large bottles. At A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

It May Do as Much for You.

STANFORD, KY., - MAY 24, 1895

W. P. WALTON.

The speech of Secretary Carlisle at Covington in behalf of a sound money more than met the fullest expectations of it. It is such a simple, plain, unvarnished array of facts supporting his position that the wayfaring man though he be fool can not err therein. He showed conclusively what a ruinous effect the free and unlimited coinage of silver, only worth half as much as gold, would have on every business and interest. The whole world would dump its silver into our mints to be coined at the expense of the people into dollars, which would pass no where else, but at their bullion value. The immediate result would not be the inflation of the currency, as is claimed, but would contract it by the withdrawal of the $65,000,000 of gold now in circulation, every dollar of which would be eliminated from the channels of trade. He claims that silver is not demonetized to-day, but that we have 50 times as many legal tender silver dollars as were coined up to 1873, dollars that we keep as good as gold, without loss of our gold, thus maintaining an actual bimetallism, which we never were able to maintain under free coinage of both metals. We wish we had space to give the speech in full. It is an eye opener, an educator and is bound to have a salutary effect on the craze that is sweeping the country. Mr. Carlisle began his speech by saying he was a candidate for no office in the gift of the people or their representatives and ended it with some personal allusions, apropos to the many misrepresentations of his former utterances on the question. He had never held the position claimed for him, but experience had materially changed ideas formed without serious consideration, though on the question of free coinage his convictions had never been shaken. The masterly address ought to be in the hands of every voter and we trust steps will be taken to have it printed and spread broadcast over the State.

The South Carolina negroes are jubilant over the action of a U. S. judge, who has granted an injunction against the holding of a constitutional convention in that State, called to impose registration requirements on all persons who offer to vote. It is claimed that the proposed law is to prevent the negroes, who outnumber the whites, from getting possession of the State government, but as it applies to all alike, there is no apparent discrimination on account of race color or previous condition of servitude. The position of the judge seems untenable, and the case will go to the supreme court, though it can not be decided in time for the holding of the convention at the proposed time.

This decision of the supreme court on the income tax law and the dissenting opinions occupy many columns of space but boiled down into a few words the whole thing is a direct tax and therefore unconstitutional. As the law had already been rendered largely nugatory, the decision knocking it out entirely is much better. Under it, as previously decided, the tax would not have raised over $10,000,000 and would have been a never ending source of law suits and vexations.

The Marquess of Queensberry may not observe his own rules in fighting, but he is a fighter all the same. His stalwart son, Lord Alfred Douglas, insulted him and he gave him a severe chastisement right in Piccadilly. It was a disgraceful spectacle, but it is just such an occurrence as is liable to happen in the best regulated families, be they English or American.

ALTHOUGH Ohio has a candidate for president in the person of Gov. McKinley, the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette never loses an opportunity to boom ex-President Harrison for a second term. That paper is evidently not affected by the favorite son business nor is it impressed very largely by the greatness of the high tariff advocate.

The Louisville Post, which has favored Hardin for governor, can not stand his free silver meddling in the Owensboro convention and his attempt to repudiate the National platform, and now says: Two plain duties lie before the democrats of Kentucky; the first is the defeat of Mr. Hardin; the second is the defeat of Mr. Blackburn.

The prices of all farm products are going up; wages are being increased in nearly all the factories and better times are dawning everywhere. All the country needs is a return to prosperity for the voters to undo their work of last Fall, and the signs all point to both conclusions devoutly to be wished.

Col. Hanks is a good man for the people of Anderson to let stay at home and it is likely they will do so. He is a candidate for the Legislature in opposition to the election of Gov. McCreary to the Senate. He oughtn't to stand as much of a chance as a short tail bull in fly time.

Carlisle has changed his Louisville date to Wednesday night next.

YOUNG ALLEN THURMAN, who aspires to the democratic leadership of Ohio, moved thereto not by any merit of his own for he is a very ordinary individual, but by the prestige of his great father's name, is out in an interview ridiculing and criticizing Carlisle's speech, which he says convicts the great Kentuckian of tendacity and plagiarism, claiming that Sherman has made the speech over and over again. It is strange that the associated press will send out such stuff and stranger still that reputable papers will publish the nonsense. Young Thurman's place is in a feeble minded institute.

"Wise men change their minds, fools never." Mr. Carlisle admits that his views on the silver question have been materially changed since 1878, both by a careful study of the question and in the light of experience. If there is anything to jeer the secretary for in that, we fail to see it.

It is bad on Desha Breckinridge and the deputy collectors appointed under the income tax law, but we shall not cry. Commissioner Miller has directed that all income tax collectors be discharged and they will cease to draw pay from the government May 25.

EAGLE BIRD!

THE GREAT SHOW STALLION, Winner of $500 stake at Lexington, won second money in $500 stake at Versailles, winner of aged premium and sweepstakes at Paris, also winner of other stakes in 1893, since which time he has been in the stud.

EAGLE BIRD is a beautiful brown, with small star, stands over 16 hands, has a flowing mane and heavy tail, is 3½ years old, blue ties, ears black, white blaze, white stockings, and white socks. Eagle Bird was sired by King Eagle, winner of dam than Star Eagle, nest son of Cabell's Lexington, 3d son by Harris' Denmark, son of Miller's Denmark.

Eagle Bird will make the season of 1894 at his old stable two miles west of Stanford, the $5 colt City, at the extremely low price of $15 To Insure a Living Colt.

Money or cash note will be required when a living colt is obtained.

Eagle Bird is one of the greatest show horses in Kentucky, as his record in 1893 will attest. As a breeder of fine good colored, high styled colts he is not exceeded.

Mares from a distance will be furnished gratis after May 1st at $1.50 per month and must be

MRS. G. T. HELM and Miss Pinkie Helm, of Danville, have been visiting Mrs. Joe F. Waters.

MRS. J. M. SALLIE, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Hocker, returned to Henderson Wednesday.

MRS. SALLIE DUDDERAR, Stanford, visited the family of S. L. Midkiff on Saturday and Sunday.—Richmond Climax.

MR. JOE SEVERANCE came over from Lexington, 52 miles, on his wheel in three hours and 40 minutes. He will graduate this session in the Bible College.

MR. C. A. SNYDER, who used to be with Mr. H. C. Rupley here, is now bookkeeper for the large importing tailors, Snyder & Wood, Washington, and is doing well.

MR. M. F. ELKIN was made deputy supreme State commander of the Knights of the Maccabees of the World at the National convention at Port Huron, Michigan, last week.

MR. J. M. SIRLD went to Lexington yesterday to conduct the singing at Broadway Christian church Sunday and drill the young people for a song service following Sunday.

MR. DOUGLAS MERRIT, who has been with the Stanford Water, Light and Ice Co. for two years in various capacities, lately as lineman, has given up his job and will go on the road. He is an honest and sober man and has given satisfaction.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Silk for waists at Shanks'.

New designs in folding beds and chairs at Withers & Hocker's.

Go to Wilkinson's for a shave, hair cut and hot and cold baths.

EIGHT passenger trains now arrive and depart from Stanford daily and no telling how many freights.

CRAB ORCHARD people are wild over the arrival of a flying Dutchman, and every body is scraping up nickels for a ride.

If you want a set of harness, a saddle, a lap duster or repairing of any kind you should call and see M. S. & J. W. Baughman.

MR. HUGH SEAGER is having a tobacco factory built at Crab Orchard and he will begin manufacturing tobacco at that place about June 1st.

T. J. HATCHER is mourning over the killing of his fine greyhound imported from Rome, Italy. The cars ran over it Wednesday. The "Old Confederate" says he cost $25, but was really worth $500.

In another column will be found an advertisement of Crab Orchard Springs, which will open in all its glory about June 15th. Manager Hofmann says it is his intention to make this the banner season at his delightful Summer resort.

MR. J. B. OWENS has leased Hotel Williams at Bowling Green and will send his son Cabell to take charge next Monday. It is the leading hostelry there and has 45 rooms. Mr. Owens will give up the Commercial at Harrodsburg, July 1.

DRUMMERS tell us that merchants are buying more largely than for years in view of better times and the prospect of a rise in all kinds of merchandise. A Boston drummer has had his prices marked up on him three times this season and prices generally are very unstable.

WITHERS & HOCKER are headquarters for wall paper and window shades.

This republican county convention to send delegates to the Louisville Convention will be held June 31 at 1 o'clock.

There is a probability that Hustonville, which always makes a success of its fairs, will have one this year. We hope so at any rate.

On and after June 1 the dry goods and clothing stores will, with the exception of the Louisville Store, join the groceries in closing at 7 o'clock each evening, except Saturday.

There are fewer free silver and free turnpike men in and around Crab Orchard than in any portion of the county. The people of that end of Lincoln are generally sound on the issues of the day.

The circuit court at Harrodsburg has sent three men to the pen so far. Commonwealth's Attorney Owsley was at home Wednesday and said that he would likely land another there before the close of the term.

A LETTER to the Courier-Journal says that Mr. Prescott, the English capitalist, has determined to build a railroad from the L & N to Rock Castle Springs, to enable him to market the vast amount of timber he has in that section.

The notice in this paper caused the arrest of the negro who stole J. P. Ballard's horse. Chief Hughes, of Somerset, telegraphed yesterday that he had both man and horse and Constable Benedict went down to bring them back.

A NEGRO named Charles Wakefield was lodged in jail here Tuesday by Elior W. H. Jones, who arrested him in Green county on a bench warrant, charging him with maliciously cutting young Hood in this county several years ago.

J. H. BAUGHMAN & Co. have 7,500 bushels of wheat in their elevator which cost them less than 50 cents a bushel. It is selling in Chicago now at 80c and it can be easily figured what a pile they will make. They are now paying 75c a bushel delivered at the mill.

LITTLE PERSONALS.—Mr. P. C. Sandidge, of the West End, is rejoicing over the arrival of a fine boy, which has recently put in his appearance at his house, while Mr. B. K. Wearen, of this place, is equally as proud of another daughter, which his wife presented him the first of the week.

MR. W. BAILEY HILL is playing in great luck. Friday last his fine jennet presented him with an extra jack colt 3 feet 4 inches and Sunday his first born came in the shape of the finest boy, his grandfather says, that was ever born in the West End. It is hard to tell which the young man is proudest of.

The county judge appointed Prof. F. J. Duffy to assist him and County Clerk J. F. Caumins in the examination of Miss Kate Blain for superintendent of schools and the papers were forwarded to the board at Frankfort Tuesday, which will pass on them. There is scarcely a doubt that the decision will be in her favor.

FOR TRIAL.—Sheriff F. P. Elliott, of Laurel, took to that county for trial Wednesday, Milton Morgan, for forgery, Wm. Stott and R. L. Jackson, both charged with murder, who have been in jail here for safe keeping. The two latter have each heard life sentences passed upon them, but got new trials.

THE low prices obtained for town property at the Baughman sale are not to be taken as an indication that the bottom has dropped out of values here. Farris & Hardin paid $6,000 for their half of the St. Asaph Hotel and Baughman's half sold for but $3,000. The store-room worth $4,000 only brought half of it, all because no one cared to bid against the infant heirs.

THE L. & N. is good about taking care of its faithful employees. Everybody on this division knows Capt. W. H. Sweeney and Martin Dillon, each of whom ran for more than 30 years on it, the one as conductor, the other as baggage master, and no two were ever better liked by the traveling public. The captain has been made depot master at Louisville and Dillon baggage master at the First Street depot, where they will draw good pay for little work.

THE sale of the estate of the late Henry Baughman was largely attended and the result satisfactory. A substantial dinner was served, which hundreds of people apparently enjoyed with a relish. The farm near town of 316 acres sold to J. Will Baughman at $48.75 and that on Hanging Fork of 480 acres to Forestus Reid for the heirs at $35.60. Half of the St. Asaph Hotel was knocked down to J. H. Baughman for $3,000 and the rooms occupied by the Louisville Store for $2,050. These are also said to have been bid in for the heirs. A tract of knob land, 40 acres, sold for $20, yearling jack colts sold at $6, jennets at $43 to $60, pair mules, $125, yearlings, $16, brood mares $12.50 to $120, sheets 3.85 per cwt., sows $6.60 to $11.25, hams 10 to 12¢c and sides 8 to 8. 90 sheep with 50 lambs brought $3.01 per head. Mr. P. M. McRoberts was clerk and kindly furnished us the above figures.

DRUMMERS tell us that merchants are buying more largely than for years in view of better times and the prospect of a rise in all kinds of merchandise. A Boston drummer has had his prices marked up on him three times this season and prices generally are very unstable.

ZIEGLER shoes at Shanks'. They are the best, therefore the cheapest.

ALL the Confederate soldiers in the county are requested to meet here the first Monday in June to organize a camp. There are no pensions in this, the object only being to form a closer union among the veterans.

THE contract for carrying a daily mail from here to Kingsville was awarded Judge Vincent Boering, of London, the great Star router. The local bidders were not in it a little bit. The service does not commence till July 1.

PROF. C. H. HOLMES, a graduate of Centre College and a teacher of much experience, announces his candidacy for superintendent of schools. He has a large number of friends and they say that they are going to see that he is nominated. Mr. Holmes is a democrat and of course submits his claims to the will of the party.

THE Garrard College Commencement exercises begin with a sermon June 2d by Rev. Lapsley McKee, the declamatory contest of Kentucky League will occur at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday following, and at 11 a.m., Wednesday, Rev. W. E. Ellis will deliver an address to the graduates, of whom there are only two, Misses Frances Helen Berry and Mary Lucile Phillips.

OPERETTA.—Misses Mary and Francis Adams and Helen Taylor were here from Hustonville yesterday. They say that big preparations are being made for the production of the pretty operetta, "The Milk Maid," by the pupils of Christian College, assisted by a number of the young men of town, on Tuesday evening, June 4th, in the college chapel. The ladies of the Christian Endeavor will have a supper the same evening and a big time all round is expected.

THE notice in this paper caused the arrest of the negro who stole J. P. Ballard's horse. Chief Hughes, of Somersett, telegraphed yesterday that he had both man and horse and Constable Benedict went down to bring them back.

FROSTS continue to come and Wednesday morning one of the heaviest of the series appeared. Ice also formed.

It has been the longest cold spell experienced in May for many years and vegetation of all kinds will be more or less blighted by it. We are told that the corn is much worse injured than was at first supposed and much of it will have to be replanted. Yesterday was cloudy and chilly and the signal service said there would be increasing cloudiness and showers Friday; warmer.

THE case of A. C. Carman against Greenberry Bright to force the opening of a road through his farm, has been on trial several days and is still undecided. The old gentleman objects to the road at all and claims that he will be damaged $2,500 if it is opened. He is represented by Miller & Helm and Carman by Varnon and McRoberts. After Judge Varnon had made statement of his side of the case, Mr. Bright got up and said, "Gentlemen of the jury, you are not to be lieve a word he says," but we shall see what we shall see.

UNEXPECTEDLY the case came to a head last evening and the defendant seems to have beaten it. Seeing that they stood to show, the plaintiff's attorneys moved to set aside the report of the viewers and this was done, settling the case in Bright's favor for the present.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The Cumberland Presbyterian Assembly will meet next year at Birmingham.

—The sixth annual convention of the Christian Endeavor of the State of Kentucky, began in Louisville last night.

—The Southern Presbyterian General Assembly adopted a report recommending an endowment of $100,000 for the invalid fund.

—The First Baptist church, of Salem, N. J., has just celebrated the one hundred and fortieth anniversary of its organization.

—A Norton, O., preacher refused to let Masons or those who smoked vote on church matters. He has lost his ordination papers.

—Mrs. Mary C. Cox, a wealthy Maysville woman, who died a short time ago left $6,000 to the First Baptist church of her native city.

—The preachers of Williamstown are making a crusade against dancing and are trying to break up a big hop to be given by the Elite club to-night.

—Rev. W. E. Crabtree was on Tuesday's train returning from Middlesboro where he had just concluded a good meeting, which resulted in nine additions to the church.

—A committee of the Southern Presbyterian General Assembly has made a report declaring agitation of the question of an organic union unwise under existing conditions.

—A religious exchange suggests that when you ask a man to pray for you, try to choose one who pays his honest debts; he is apt to be better acquainted with the Lord than one who don't.

—There is no consolation for the lazy christian in Rev. Dr. Heber Newton's recent remarks—"If heaven is to be a realm of idleness I should be reluctant to hasten to heaven. Activity is an essential to happiness."

—In June the polyglot petition, for circulation by British Woman's Temperance Association, asking for the prohibition of the sale of alcohol and opium, will be presented to Parliament. It has the signatures of 7,500,000 women belonging to different nationalities.

—The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church has referred the case of Mrs. Woolsey, the woman preacher from the Kentucky Synod, to a committee.

—Rev. Charles E. Nash, editor of the Kentucky Baptist, denies emphatically that he was held in bonds at Washington to keep the peace and that he had no alteration whatever.

—The Presbyterian General Assembly decided by a vote of 432 to 98 to continue the movement intended to give the General Assembly absolute control over its theological seminaries.

—There are some people so good that it is a wonder to us that the Lord doesn't translate them. Singular as it may appear we are told that a number of our friends of the Christian church objected to worshipping in the Opera House and refused to attend service there. Woe unto such scribes and pharisees!

—The Seventh District Union of the Christian Endeavor Society has just been organized at Danville. It is composed of the societies of Boyle, Lincoln, Garrard, Mercer and Casey, and a convention will be held every year in May. Officers were elected as follows: President, S. M. Harbison; vice presidents, Miss Alice Burgin, Burgin; Miss Etha Vanarsdall, Hustonville; Miss Mattie Marrs, Danville; Mrs. Frank Poteet, Harrodsburg; Mrs. M. S. Parker, Danville; Miss Ellen McDowell, Perryville; and Mr. C. H. Ferran, Danville; corresponding secretary, Miss Nannie Caldwell, Parksville; recording secretary and treasurer, Miss Emma Adams.

Changed His Mind.

"I notice," said a clergyman's wife to her husband, "that it is no longer fashionable for the minister to kiss the bride at the wedding ceremony."

"Yes," sadly responded the good man, "many of the pleasant features connected with the wedding ceremony have been discarded, and—"

"What's that?" demanded his wife, ominously.

"I mean—I mean," he stammered, "that the senseless custom of kissing the bride should have been abolished long ago."—Tammany Times.

A Narrow Escape.

"Do you know, my dear," said young Mr. Hilltop to his sweetheart, "I don't think much of your mother."

"Sir!" she exclaimed, in frigid tones, drawing herself up to her full height.

"What do you mean?"

"You see, I think so much of you, that I really have no time to devote to thoughts of others, not even of such a thoroughly estimable lady as your mother."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

The Fact Established.

"If, as you say, the defendant is so conscientious a man," said the lawyer, "you ought to be able to give some example of it."

"Well," said the witness, "I have known him for twenty years, and in all that time I have never known him to take whisky for a cold except when he really had a cold."—Cincinnati Tribune.

A Brutal Act.

Mr. Gotham—So my old friend, Col. Bloodbringer, is in disgrace?

Col. Kaintuck—Sent to Coventry. No respectable person will speak to him.

"My, my! What did he do?"

"Struck a gentleman with his fist instead of shooting him with a pistol, sah."—N. Y. Weekly.

About His Size.

"There," said one old crony to another, to whom he was showing the lions of the town, "that's the statue of Baillie Wilson."

"Is it not a guid bit larger than life size, though?" queried his frie.

"Oo, ay, it's a' that, but it's no a bit bigger than the baillie thought he was himself."—Pearson's Weekly.

To Make the Fourteenth.

Maud—Willie, I wish you hadn't proposed to me to-night.

Willie—Why, pray?

Maud—Because you made the thirteenth, and now I am actually compelled to encourage old Von Gotrocks to propose, so as to break the spell of bad luck.—N. Y. World.

It Was Too Risky.

Reggy—What do you suppose a fellow's chances are for getting a good wife?

Tom—I should say they were about equal to the chances of his being a good husband.

Reggy—By Jove! Then I guess I won't marry.—Illustrated Monthly.

Hard on George.

George—My dear Miss Laura, the highest wish I have in life is to marry—

Laura (interrupting him)—You had better speak to my mother.

George—Oh, thanks. I never before thought I had any chance.

Laura—I know she would like to marry again.—Fliegende Blaetter.

She Had Her Doubts.

Miss Highkicker—Are these diamonds false?

"No, indeed, they are as true as my love for you," replied Johnny Masher. "Is that so? Then I guess I had better have them examined by an expert."—Texas Siftings.

A Paradox.

I never could quite understand it. For it seems without reason or rhyme, That the woman forever demanding her rights Is the one who gets left every time. —Life.

EXTRACT FROM A NOVEL.

He moved with a quick, even stride. —Brooklyn Life.

Hard to Avoid.

"Like all men, you have a pet name for your wife, I suppose?"

"Oh, yes."

"What do you call her?"

"I call her my income tax usually."—Truth.

Reasonable Complaint.

"Waiter," said the guest, "I wish you'd ask the proprietors to turn on a little more light. It's so dark in here I can't tell whether I'm eating planked shad or a paper of pins."—Chicago Tribune.

Reassuring.

Life-Insurance Agent—What did your father and mother die of?

Uncle Humsted—I don't rightly know; but 'twarn't nothin' serious.—Puck.

"Nothin' to Say."

B'Jones—Teddy Thoughtless boasts that he always says what he thinks.

Miss Vanderwhack—Yes? He has been sitting there for an hour without speaking a word.—Town Topics.

Literary Usury.

Rebecca—Oh, Ikey, dat boy Leopold reads his books vit such great interest!

Ikey—Mine gracious, Rebecca—great interest! We can't afford it.—Truth.
